

TOP 10 MOMENTS OF THE YEAR

10. Our mini vacation to Madison, WI where Cassidy sang, "NIU, go Huskies" outside Camp Randell (home of the Badgers)
9. Brechon weekend – a cold July cabin weekend with family and the first time Cassidy met many of her cousins. Cold and Rain, but fun was had by all!
8. Cassidy turns four and reminds us often that next year she'll be going to Kindergarten (I write with a big sigh)
7. Brian completing his first ½ marathon on no sleep in 1 hour and 47 minutes after working the night shift (show off)
6. Cassidy's love for all things nerding has emerged- much to her mother's dismay
5. Brian's one year anniversary at work = job security
4. Cassidy completes her first soccer season – success is not measured by times she kicked the ball, but by the smile on her face.
3. Adopting a new family member, a four-year old terrier-mix, named Cookie
2. Megan finally getting her new kitchen – and Brian not having to hear about it anymore
1. Spending time with family and friends - thank you God for watching over them all this year (which proved to be a difficult job)

Merry Christmas and may God bless your family this coming year.
