GOOD-BYE GIGI

It has been a year full of memories that will someday, when time allows, make it into the girls' scrapbooks. Unfortunately, this year we did have to say good-bye to our dear, Gigi, Brian's grandma. In April she passed away after fighting a battle with cancer. We are thankful for all of the memories we had with her over the years and only wished she had been able to meet Amelia. Remember to hug your loved ones and cherish every moment. We are thinking of each of you this holiday season.
